Whereas, the members now pause to recognize the John Mark Culler Family, which was honored in January with the Reflections of Character award for “Perseverance” at the Lee’s Summit Mayor Karen Messerli’s Character Breakfast; and

Whereas, John Mark Culler is fifty-four years old and has lived with Becker’s muscular dystrophy all his life; and

Whereas, John Mark Culler’s primary care-givers are his mother, Marilouise “Mary” Culler, and his sister, Teresa Hunt, who along with others, help care for him twenty-four hours a day; and

Whereas, John Mark Culler’s mind is active and functions well, and he is knowledgeable about computers and browses the internet, checking his emails frequently; and

Whereas, John Mark Culler graduated from Lee’s Summit High School in 1972, played bass guitar and keyboards in contemporary Christian and rock bands, and wrote music and performed in his church, Lee’s Summit United Methodist Church; and
